2027 FEI PAEC Championship of the Americas Application Reminder

The inaugural FEI Pan American Equestrian Confederation (PAEC) Championship of the Americas will be held from January 21-31, 2027 at World Equestrian Center - Ocala (WEC). This Championship will feature three disciplines - Dressage, Eventing, and Jumping.

This is a new and exciting opportunity to field a Jumping team at a championship on home soil. The aim is to send a competitive team that has the ability to podium while also making use of the opportunity to develop athletes and horses.

Athlete/horse combinations currently jumping 1.50m successfully including the open water are encouraged to apply. Applications can be found in your Athlete Dashboard.

Format

- January 28 - First Competition — Speed: Table A course judged under Table C, no jump-off. Height max. 1.45 m.
- January 29 - Second Competition — Team Final: two rounds run on the same day. Round 1 at 1.45 m, Round 2 at 1.50 m. The ten (10) best teams qualify for Round 2. Judged under Table A at 400 m/min (reducible to 375 m/min).
- January 31 - Third Competition — Individual Final: two rounds, A and B, at max. 1.50 m. Round A: 35 best combinations. Round B: 25 best combinations. The lowest cumulative penalties determine the Individual Champion.
